

We Fight Against Heartless Wage Cuts

February 14

On Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, City Workers -- the heart of San Francisco -- will put the "human" back into the Department of Human Resources by defending decades of progress for women and people of color at 1 S. Van Ness, at 12 noon.

It is clear the SF Administration is looking to roll back pay equity by targeting 45 job classifications for wage cuts (see back), DHR says these are overpaid.

If we don't stop this wage discrimination now, the list could grow next year.

If the City wins, it opens the door for more jobs to be targeted for wage cuts.

By undermining pay equity laws, the administration wants to divide us and to take away our power as working people. They want to erase a civil right we earned more than two decades ago. We say no way!

We will be bringing this fight to DHR first, then to City Hall on March 5.

Make no mistake: We WILL NOT let them turn back the clock!

Rally to Defend Pay Equity @ DHR

When: Thursday, Feb 14, 12 NOON

Where: DHR, 1 S. Van Ness, SF

"We are all in this together to protect and fight for our families and our future. The City will NOT divide us!"
